

Parliamentary Dimension

WORKSHOP

“Perspectives for renewables in Romania and the CESEC region”

Organised in cooperation with the Committee for Industries and Services of the Chamber of Deputies of Romania and the Committee on Energy, Energy Infrastructure and Mineral Resources of the Romanian Senate

Parliament of Romania
Human Rights Hall
Palace of Parliament - C1 Entrance, Izvor Street 2-4, Sector 5, Bucharest

Monday 1 April 2019, 11:00 – 13:00

Working languages: English and Romanian – simultaneous interpretation provided

10.30 – 11.00: Registration and welcome coffee

11.00 – 13.00: Perspectives for renewables in Romania and the CESEC region

Chair: Iulian Iancu, Chairman of the Committee for Industries and Services of the Chamber of Deputies of Romania

- Welcome and opening speech
Gheorghe Marin, Chair of the Committee on Energy, Energy Infrastructure and Mineral Resources of the Romanian Senate

Input speech

- Romania on track for 2030?
Martin Moise, First Vice-President, PATRES
- The 2030 framework for renewable energy: investment certainty, citizens empowerment, cost effective RES deployment
Anne-Maria Ide, Policy Officer, Renewables and CCS policies Unit, DG ENERGY, European Commission
- Renewable potential in Romania and CESEC and the innovation challenge to move towards a RES based system
Gurbuz Gonul, Director of Country Support and Partnerships, IRENA

Parliamentary Dimension

- Support schemes - lessons learned and policy support for the future
Viorel Alicuș, General Manager, Energy Efficiency Department, ANRE
- European Joint Project between Romania and the Netherlands: NERO project
Markus Vrieling, Chairman Advisory Board, NERO Joint Project
- A fair and just transition for South East Europe into a RES based economy
Julian Popov, Fellow, European Climate Foundation

Questions and panel discussion

Closing remarks

Jan Geiss, Secretary General, EUFORES