

WORKSHOP

Organized in cooperation with Croatian Parliament

“WHAT OPPORTUNITIES DO RENEWABLE ENERGY SOURCES REPRESENT FOR CROATIA?”

Croatian Parliament, Zagreb
“Ivan Mažuranić” Hall
11 July 2013, 13:00 – 16:00

PROGRAMME

Introduction and Experts’ Round

- Introduction
Chair: Jan Geiss, Secretary General, EUFORES
- Welcome
Josip Leko, Speaker of the Croatian Parliament
- Energy prospects of Croatia: Perspective from the Croatian Parliament
Daniel Mondekar, MP, Co-host of the workshop;
Branko Bačić, Chairman of the Environment and Nature Conservation Committee;
Igor Rađenović, Chairman of the Committee on the Economy
- Renewable energy policies in the European Union – will we deliver for 2020?
Marie Donnelly, Director of Renewables, Research, Innovation and Energy Efficiency, Directorate-General for Energy, European Commission
- Current and planned renewable energy policies in Croatia
Kristina Celic, Director for Sector of Energy, Ministry of Economy
Goran Granić, Director, Energy Institut „Hrvoje Požar“

Questions & Answers Session

Break

Co-funded by the Intelligent Energy Europe
Programme of the European Union

The sole responsibility for the content of this event lies with the authors. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Union. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.

“How does the Croatian sustainable energy future look like?”

Chair: Mirela Holy, Member of the Environment and Nature Conservation Committee and the Committee on the Economy

- How can Croatia deliver on renewable energy: Perspective from the renewable energy sector
Ljubomir Majdandžić, Croatian Association for Solar Energy (HSUSE)
- Why “yes” to renewables?
Josche Muth, European Renewable Energy Council
- Renewable energy sources in Croatia – a quantitative assessment and policy conclusions towards and beyond 2020
Christian Panzer, Energy Economics Group (EEG)
- Challenges to the implementation of renewable energy policies in Croatia
Velimir Šegon, Deputy Managing Director, North-West Croatia Regional Energy Agency

Open discussion:

Exchange of views and discussion among participants

Co-funded by the Intelligent Energy Europe Programme of the European Union

The sole responsibility for the content of this event lies with the authors. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Union. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.