

WORKSHOP

Organised in cooperation with the Parliamentary Renewable and Sustainable Energy Group

“Can the EU help to make the UK’s energy cleaner, more affordable and secure?”

1 March 2016, 11:00 – 15:00

Attlee Suite, Portcullis House, Westminster, London

PROGRAMME

11:15 – 12:15 Session 1

Chair: Jan Geiss, Secretary General, EUFORES

- Welcome and opening Speech
Lord Bourne, Under Secretary of State for Energy and Climate*
- “Are UK policies adequate to meet fuel poverty and carbon targets?”
David Green, Executive Director, PRASEG*
- “The Energy Union: What it means for the UK”
Claude Turmes, EUFORES President, Member of the European Parliament
- “How can the UK profit from energy efficiency and renewable energy sources?”
Marie Donnelly, European Commission*
- Renewable Energies as motors for investment and growth
Giles Dickson, CEO EWEA

Co-funded by the Intelligent Energy Europe
Programme of the European Union

The sole responsibility for the content of this event lies with the authors. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Union. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.

12:15 – 13:15 Session 2

Chair: Jan Geiss, Secretary General, EUFORES

- Input presentation: “Energy Efficiency Watch: Implementation of energy efficiency policies in the UK”
Daniel Becker, Manager, Ecofys, Energy Efficiency Watch 3 Project Partner
- Housing and health: The costs and benefits of dealing with poor housing in the UK (Liverpool Case Study)
Ian Watson, Principal Consultant BRE Group UK
- Energy efficiency as effective means to tackle fuel poverty in the UK
Jude Kirton-Darling, Member of the European Parliament
- Local efforts to increase Energy Efficiency in the UK
Ian Preston, Head of Household Energy Services, Centre for Sustainable Energy

13:15 – 14:15 Panel discussion

14:15 – 3pm Buffet Lunch and Networking

*to be confirmed

Co-funded by the Intelligent Energy Europe Programme of the European Union

The sole responsibility for the content of this event lies with the authors. It does not necessarily reflect the opinion of the European Union. The European Commission is not responsible for any use that may be made of the information contained therein.